

TIGER BRANDS

Tiger Brands receives A+ ranking from Unity Corporation

Tiger Brands' has been recognized by the Unity Corporation for achieving investment returns for stakeholders in a socially responsible manner.

Tiger Brands received an A+ ranking from the Unity Incorporation, which nominates and awards South African (SA) companies that appear in the CGF Universe of Shares that have achieved sustainable investment returns for their stakeholders in a socially responsible manner.

The CGF Universe of Shares is a list of companies that the Old Mutual Investment Group SA Portfolio Manager has a mandate to invest in. Tiger Brands, was analyzed for investment purposes in 2011. The company passed and improved the total score to 77.78 percent in 2011 from 70.51 percent in 2006, maintaining an A+ rating.

Companies recognized by the Unity Corporation are assessed against the following criteria:

- Job creation by creating jobs via expansion and innovation;
- Training and skills development of employees to enhance skills for worker productivity;
- Social and economic empowerment through worker participation on collective bargaining, and on various committees or forums. Support of corporate social investment programmes by supporting social welfare programmes, job creation projects, and creating economic opportunities for emerging black and women businesses;
- Employment equity by ensuring equity in the workplace;
- Conditions of employment by adhering to labour legislations;
- Environmental standards by promoting sound environmental practices;
- Health and Safety by adhering to health and safety work environment; and
- Corporate governance by demonstrating openness and transparency.